

The Garden State Symphonic Band

In Concert
Chris Pedersen, Musical Director/Conductor
Todd Nichols, Assistant Conductor

July 10, 2020

SAMPLE

Washington Post March
Procession of Nobles
This Is the Moment from Jekyll & Hyde *
Lamento Borincan
Cavalleria Rusticana
Rolling Thunder March
Wheels of a Dream *
Silverado
El Albanico

John Philip Sousa
Rimsky-Korsakov
Bricusse/Wildhorn
R. H. Marin: Arr. P. Nagle
Mascagni/Falcone
Henry Fillmore
Flaherty/Ahrens
Broughton/Bass
Javaloyes/Hume

Intermission

White Rose March
Hamilton
Gallito Spanish March
This Is My Country *
Robinson's Grand Entrée March
Trompetas
Chinese Galop Opus 20
Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl
Camelot *

John Philip Sousa
Miranda/Brubaker
S. Lope
Raye/Jacobs: Arr. P. Nagle
Karl L. King
R. Palomar: Arr. P. Nagle
Johann Strauss, Sr./J. Curnow
Badelt/Wasson
Lerner/Loewe

* Vocalist: Ken Wasser, Baritone: Ken began his musical career as a child, performing on Broadway in The Sound of Music with Mary Martin. He graduated from Rutgers University with a degree in vocal music and has been getting rave reviews from audiences ever since. Ken has been an active member of the renowned Monmouth Civic Chorus for over 30 years, and he is a featured soloist on their published CD's. He has also been affiliated with numerous other musical groups: Cabaret for Life, Plays-in-the-Park, Battleground Arts Center, PNC Arts Center, Liberty State Park, Count Basie Theater and The Garden State Symphonic Band. Ken has performed starring roles in both musicals (The Most Happy Fella, Fiddler on the Roof, Oklahoma!, Carousel, Brigadoon and Kismet) and operettas (The Magic Flute, The Merry Widow and New Moon) plus numerous leads in the Gilbert and Sullivan repertoire. In his spare time, Ken provides the entertainment for various organizations with his one-man show, The Three Baritones. Ken won a PERRY award from NJ ACT for outstanding lead actor in a musical for his role as Don Quixote in Man of La Mancha. Also, he completed a series of performances portraying Emile de Beque in South Pacific.

Keeping live music alive