*American Soprano Jacqueline Mulligan was only nineteen when she received her first professional orchestral engagement with the Louisville Orchestra. Often characterized as a singer from the "Golden Age", she has appeared throughout the United States and Europe delighting audiences not only with opera and musical theatre but with the songs from times forgotten. A winner of the Emerging Artists award from the Business Committee for the Arts, Jacqueline has appeared on Broadway with the City Center "Encores" series in Music in the Air, Face the Music and Of Thee I Sing and has been featured at Lincoln Center performing music from the bygone era of Broadway. Her opera roles include: the three heroines in The Tales of Hoffman, Manon in Massenet's Manon, Violetta in Verdi's La Traviata, Lucia in Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor, Musetta in La Bohème, Adina in L'Elisir D'Amore, Gilda in Rigoletto and the title role in Carlisle Floyd's Susannah. She is happy to again be singing with the Garden State Symphonic Band this season!
