AJ Minutillo has enjoyed singing since he was in kindergarten and is grateful for the many performance opportunities, both local and abroad, he has had over his lifetime. His extensive musical preferences span a wide spectrum of styles, including Rock, Folk, R&B, Classic Music, and Musical Theater. Among his many community theater appearances, favorite roles include Judas (Jesus Christ Superstar), Gov. John Slaton & Britt Craig (Parade), Douglass Panch (25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee), Francis (Forever Plaid), and Radames (Aida). He is the former Co-Founder/President of the Riffrunners (Formerly 4GotteN SuitCase) co-ed a cappella group at Ramapo College. AJ holds an Associate of Arts Degree in Music Performance from the County College of Morris, complementing his early training in the Alexander Technique. He is known for being a quick study and has been called upon to fill in for roles, a skill put to the test when he filled in for the Beast (Beauty and the Beast) just two hours before a performance. AJ would like to thank his friends, family, and of course his wife Dani, for their love and support.
